

TyNisha began her career in Public Service for the United States Postal Service. She obtained her Masters Degree in Criminal Justice at Governors State University. While trying to advance her career she noticed a joy in people's lives as they began purchasing homes on the route she delivered. That joy sparked her interest in Real Estate because she wanted to continue seeing this excitement as well as become the cause for it.

TyNisha began her journey to follow one of her passions to become a REALTOR® as well as embark upon purchasing her first property in the process. While undergoing the home buying process it helped her see the different aspects of Real Estate and understand the road her future clients will endure. TyNisha's drive, leadership and tenacious spirit will make her the perfect agent to making your real estate goals tangible.

During TyNisha's free time she likes to spend it with her husband and beautiful children. She enjoys fashion and was once a published hair and clothing model. She loves to travel and explore different atmospheres. Professionalism, honesty and reliability are all qualities TyNisha guarantees you will receive from her while on your journey to a monumental part of your life.
